Considering dropping out?

Students may consider leaving the Institute for a variety of reasons. These may be related to an health matters, financial difficulties, personal difficulties or other issues.

If you are considering leaving, we would strongly advise you to contact the Education and Training Coordinator to talk about your situation. The Coordinator may assist you with a decision making process responsive to your needs rather than the expectations of others. This process may enable you to clarify your situation, provide an opportunity to talk it over with an independent person, explore all your options and assist you to follow through on your decision.
