

CHC33015 CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (AGEING)

Personal Carer, Assistant in Nursing

Personal Care Workers assist in caring for older people in nursing homes, their own homes, hospitals or clinics. The job role requires a person who is patient, has good communication skills, is physically fit, and has a commitment to the rights of older people and people with a disability to live dignified lives.

Entry requirements

- Good English Language, Literacy and Numeracy skills (or completion of English to Year 10)
- Access to a computer, the internet and basic computer proficiency
- Police check / clearance
- Employment in an appropriate aged care role OR 120 hours vocational placement in an approved residential facility.

FUNCTIONS

Workers will be expected to perform a range of functions and may be required to perform the following tasks:

- Help with personal care, showering, bathing, shaving, toileting, oral hygiene, dressing
- Assist to lift and turn clients who are immobile or confined to bed
- Assist with meals and feeding
- Help clients to move around
- Follow care plans and direction from nurses to provide care to clients
- Document activities of daily living and changes to clients in workplace documents
- Work in a team to provide care
- Communicate with families especially during difficult times

Workers are usually required to carry out rostered shift work that may include night and weekend work. This makes it a great occupation for people seeking part-time income, or those who would like flexible work hours. Some positions may be casual. With experience and further training, personal care workers can become Enrolled or Registered Nurses.

COURSE DURATION

This course is delivered through a blended model combining face-to-face classes and monthly webinars.

Our program is part-time and flexible to support existing workers in the aged care industry. The course can take up to 12 months to complete. This will be based on your prior knowledge and experience and the amount of time you can commit to your studies.

Innovation. Collaboration. Education.

Our trainers will make two (2) scheduled visits to your workplace (if required), depending on your location. Further unlimited support will be provided via telephone, email support and GoToMeeting (virtual classroom via web cam) to provide students with tuition, learning support, assessment completion and conduct workplace observations.

ONGOING TRAINING AND LEARNING SUPPORT

Extra learning support is also available by our Study Assistance Service. For more information, please refer to the Study Assistance Support flyer available on the Education Institute website.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning is offered to all students on commencement. RPL provides an opportunity for a range of skills relevant to this qualification and the job role to be recognised before formal training commences.

RPL will require you to discuss your experience with our Course Coordinator, gather evidence to support the RPL, and participate in a workplace observation visit with one of our trainers.

All aged care workers should have a current Senior First Aid and CPR certification.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Students and employers are to make individual arrangements regarding release time/shift scheduling, or leave to attend training or vocational placement (if required). Resources will be provided for each unit of competency.
